

O'Donnell Abu

March

Traditional

The image displays a musical score for the march "O'Donnell Abu". It consists of four staves of music, all written in treble clef. The key signature is one sharp (F#), and the time signature is 4/4. The melody is characterized by a rhythmic pattern of eighth and sixteenth notes, typical of a march. The score begins with a treble clef, a key signature of one sharp, and a 4/4 time signature. The music is written in a single melodic line across four staves. The notation includes various note values, rests, and bar lines. The piece concludes with a double bar line.

"O'Donnell Abú" is a traditional Irish song. It refers to the Gaelic lord Red Hugh O'Donnell who ruled Tyrconnell in the late sixteenth century, first with the approval of the Crown authorities in Dublin and later in rebellion against them during Tyrone's Rebellion. The title refers to the Gaelic war cry of "Abú," "To victory," which followed a commander's name.
